Out-of-jail MP to take part in key Brexit vote

DISGRACED MP Fiona Onasanya can return to Parliament to take part in crucial Brexit votes after being released from prison.

The Peterborough MP (above), who has been expelled by the Labour Party, was driven out of HMP Bronzefield in Ashford, Surrey, yesterday after serving a month of her prison sentence.

Having been freed under an early release scheme, it's thought the 35-year-old Remainer will be wearing an electronic tag if she attends today's Commons debates and votes.

Ms Onasanya was sentenced to three months in jail at the Old Bailey on January 29 after she was convicted of perverting the course of justice by lying to avoid a speeding charge.

Boat of 13 migrants found in Channel

A BOAT carrying 13 migrants, including a baby, has been found in the English Channel off the Kent coast.

Border Force said it had been alerted to the boat by French officials in the early hours.

It was intercepted and brought to Dover.

The people on board were then transferred to immigration officials for interview.

The 10 adults and three children were given medical checks and "found to be well", a spokesman for the Home Office said.

"The group presented themselves as Iranian and Iraqi nationals," he added.

END OF THE TORIES... Party split over Brexit

THERESA May has promised MPs a vote on delaying the UK's departure from the EU or ruling out a no-deal Brexit, if they reject her deal next month.

The Prime Minister made a statement to MPs on Brexit yesterday, amid the threat of a revolt by Remain-supporting ministers.

But the move threatens infuriating pro-Brexit Tories who will see a delay to Britain leaving the EU as a step toward the whole process being scrapped.

Insiders say the party may SPLIT over the issue.

Labour leader Jeremy Corbyn accused the PM of trying to "string" the Brexit process out.

Mrs May promised MPs she will put her withdrawal agreement – including any changes she has agreed with the EU – to a meaningful vote on March 12.

If that fails, MPs will be offered two separate votes

– the first, on March 13, on whether MPs support a no-deal Brexit so the UK would "only leave without a deal on March 29 if there is explicit consent in the House for that outcome".

If that fails, MPs will get a vote the following day on requesting an extension to the two-year Article 50 negotiation process to delay EU withdrawal beyond March 29.

"Let me be clear, I do not want to see Article 50 extended," she told MPs.

"An extension beyond the end of June would mean the UK taking part in the European Parliament elections.

"What kind of message would that send to the more than 17 million people who voted to leave the EU nearly three years ago now?"

END OF LABOUR... Party split over Brexit

LABOUR'S Brexit civil war escalated dramatically after Jeremy Corbyn backed a second referendum.

Leave-supporting MPs voiced fury after their leader heralded a seismic shift, warning that trying to overturn the result from 2016 would be 'catastrophic' with more than five million Labour supporters voting leave.

And that would result in a damaging split in the Labour ranks.

Tensions are also already seething over when a referendum should be held – and whether Remain should be on the ballot paper.

In an extraordinary move, Mr Corbyn told his MPs that the party was ready to back a second public vote to prevent a 'damaging Tory Brexit'.

The party is likely to table a Commons amendment which would mean a referendum on whatever deal finally gets through Parliament.

No-deal would not be an option in another national vote, according to sources.

However, the new stance still appears to leave questions about whether Labour will call for a referendum if Mrs May's deal is not passed, or whether one would only happen if Mr Corbyn wins power and negotiates his own package.

Shadow foreign secretary Emily Thornberry insisted the other choice on the ballot paper would be Remain – meaning the vote could overturn the result of the 2016 referendum.

But that position is seemingly not shared by aides close to Mr Corbyn, who suggested there could be three options – and Mrs May's deal would not be one of them.

Remainer Labour MPs were delighted at the developments, with one boasting: "There's no turning back for Jeremy now."

A split in the Labour Party now seems inevitable, say insiders.

END OF THE WORLD! Nuke armed India & Pakistan on brink

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

SPLITS in the Tory and Labour parties seemed small beer last night as the world edged closer to COMPLETE NUCLEAR ARMAGEDDON.

World War Three came several steps closer when India launched air raids into territory controlled by its northern neighbour Pakistan.

The development is chilling, as both countries are nuclear armed.

And any conflict between the feuding neighbours would inevitably drag in the other regional powers,

Russia and China.

That could lead to a military domino-effect, similar to that seen at the start of World War One.

Some pessimistic analysts have even suggested that the entire planet could be just a heap of radioactive dust by the weekend.

India says it launched air strikes against militants in Pakistani territory.

The Central Government said strikes targeted a training camp of the Jaish-e-Mohammad (JeM) group in Balakot.

Pakistan said the strikes hit an empty area but vowed to respond.

India accuses Pakistan of allowing militant groups to operate on its territory and says Pakistani security agencies played a role in the February 14 attack – claimed by JeM.

Pakistan denies any role and says it does not provide safe haven to militants.

Tuesday's air strikes are the first launched across the line of control – the de facto border that divides India-administered Kashmir from Pakistan-administered Kashmir – since the 1971 war between the countries.

TODAY'S WEATHER

It will turn unsettled on Thursday, with the risk of

PM DEATH PLOT TERRORIST PAL JAILED

A FRIEND of an Islamic State terrorist who plotted to assassinate the Prime Minister has been jailed.

Mohammed Aqib Imran, 23 (left), planned to travel for jihad, while Naa'imur Zakariyah Rahman, 21, was set on a suicide attack on the heart of Government.

Imran, of Birmingham, researched travel and tried to get a false passport online.

Rahman, from Finchley, north London, admitted helping his friend by recording an IS sponsorship video for him.

The pair were snared by a network of online spies from the Met Police, MI5 and the FBI.

Rahman's plans to kill Theresa May were stopped when undercover officers gave him a jacket and bag packed with fake explosives.

Following a trial at the Old Bailey in July, Rahman was found guilty of preparing acts of terrorism and was jailed for life with a minimum term of 30 years.

Imran was convicted of possessing a terrorist handbook entitled How to Survive in the West.

Following a retrial, former student Imran was also found guilty of preparing acts of terrorism abroad.

He was jailed for eight years and six months for preparing to join IS with an additional three years and six months on extended licence.

In a statement, the high court of Catalonia – where Shakira (right) lives with her partner, Barcelona footballer Gerard Pique – said she had been summoned to appear before a judge in Esplugues de Llobregat, near Barcelona.

The 42-year-old Colombian singer is suspected of not paying taxes in Spain despite being a resident between 2011 and 2014, according to prosecutors.

Facebook joins Twitter in EDL founder ban

FACEBOOK has deleted Tommy Robinson's private profile, public page and Instagram account.

It comes after the English Defence League founder (above) was also banned from Twitter.

He had more than a million followers on his main Facebook page until the ban.

Facebook said in a statement that when "ideas and opinions cross the line and amount to hate speech that may create an environment of intimidation and exclusion for certain groups in society – in some cases with potentially dangerous offline implications", it requires the platform to "take action".

"This is true regardless of the ideology they espouse. Tommy Robinson's Facebook Page has repeatedly broken these standards, posting material that uses dehumanizing language and calls for violence targeted at Muslims."

"He has also behaved in ways that violate our policies around organized hate."

AS glitzy, back-slapping events go, they don't get any bigger than The Oscars.

Hollywood's annual "ooh, aren't we clever?" festival draws attention from all over the world.

Basically, though, it's highly-paid people who have made films bellowing from the rooftops: "We've made some films."

In no other industry do people make such a fuss about doing their f**king job.

But, in today's vacuous, celebrity-obsessed world, we're probably stuck with starstruck showbiz reporters hanging on some daft film bint's every word during a red carpet interview.

TOP FEMALE COP FACES CHOP OVER FARTING

A FEMALE detective is facing the sack for farting on duty and asking a junior officer if he wanted an affair with a "fatter, ugly, older woman".

Det Con Claire Fitzpatrick, 44, is accused of repeatedly using the C-word and breaking wind in front of other officers.

She is fighting to save her job at a misconduct hearing, saying her antics were part of "a culture of banter" inside her village police station.

Fitzpatrick told the police force disciplinary hearing that swearing "was just the nature of the place" and the C-word "had replaced the F-word as the swear word of choice".

By COLIN HURST
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Gwent Police officer Fitzpatrick, who had been promoted to a temporary sergeant, is accused of 25 counts of inappropriate behaviour, amounting to gross misconduct.

Jest

She insists her words were said "in jest" and denies misconduct after 22 years service in the Welsh force.

Fitzpatrick allegedly asked a male PC if he had a girlfriend and whether he wanted an affair with "an older woman".

When he said no, she allegedly replied: "I'll be gentle, I promise."

She also admitted breaking wind outside the sergeant's office at the station, but said: "It wasn't deliberately."

She added: "I would joke about it. Sometimes I would speak like the character Borat, or use a silly voice to say: 'Rather out than in'."

The misconduct hearing at Gwent Police HQ in Cwmbran was told Fitzpatrick would regularly swear and once arrested a motorist telling him: "You're driving like a c**t".

She told the panel: "The officer with me said: 'Sergeant, you can't say that to him'."

"I took a deep breath with my head in my hands, and said, 'I'm sorry' to the driver."

"The driver apologised for his driving and his manner towards us."

Fitzpatrick also asked another woman officer if she "had any cream for thrush" while inside the packed police station.

She denies bullying and inappropriate behaviour.

The hearing continues.

1-IN-10 BONKS BEHIND WHEEL

REVVED-up Brits are risking life, limb and even potential prison time by getting raunchy behind the wheel of their car - while it's still moving.

Around 10 per cent of motorists admitted getting frisky in a moving vehicle, according to a survey by Select Car Leasing.

And 2% said they'd had full-blown sex on the go.

Although there is no specific law against having sex and driving at the same time, those caught in a clinch risk being charged with dangerous driving - an offence that can result in being banned from the road and a jail sentence.

A spokesman for Select Car Leasing said: "We were surprised that so many respondents had engaged in sexual activity while on the move."

"We really would not advocate it."

Killer: Devil told me to stab best pal

A MAN who discharged himself from a psychiatric hospital two days before killing his best friend has been sent to a secure hospital.

David Reid stabbed Mark Johnston, 53, at least 120 times because he believed the Devil told him to.

At the High Court in Glasgow, forensic psychiatrist Dr Duncan Alcock said Reid, who suffers from paranoid schizophrenia and bipolar disorder, would "present a serious risk to the public if he was at large".

The attack took place in Reid's flat in Broughty Ferry.

Reid, 46, was found not guilty of killing Mark Johnston by reason of insanity.

Judge Lady Rae ordered he be detained on a compulsion order and a restriction order.

Two days before the killing, Reid took a taxi to the Royal Cornhill Hospital in Aberdeen and asked for treatment. Two days later, he discharged himself.

Two days after that, he phoned his sister and confessed he had stabbed his friend to death after "shredding" his jugular vein with a kitchen knife.

Reid told police: "The Devil told me I had two hours to stab him."

Records were broken once more yesterday as yet again, the UK experienced its warmest winter day since records began, for the second day running.

The mercury hit 20.8C (69.4F) in Porthmadog, Gwynedd, west Wales, at 1.22pm, the Met Office said.

And 20.7C (69.2F) was recorded half an hour later in Teddington, south-west London.

On Monday, the thermometer reached 20.6C (68.5F) at Trawsgoed in Ceredigion, West Wales, the highest recorded in February and beating the previous record of 19.7C (67.4F) in Greenwich, south-east London, in 1998.

Parts of Britain were hotter than a series of popular holiday destinations – beating Malibu, Athens and Barcelona.

Sun worshippers from Aberystwyth to London basked in the sunshine and lapped up ice creams.

And babes Emma Green and Jamie Jenkins even stripped for a water pistol fight.

Holidaymakers hoping to catch rays in Crete will be disappointed, with the island seeing 1.2in (300mm) of rain on Monday and a maximum temperature of 13C (55.4F) forecast yesterday.

our baseline perception of what's normal is shifting.

POLICE are hunting a naked man who has been spotted cycling in the warmer weather.

Officers received a number of reports about the nude male on Sunday and are asking for members of the public to get in touch with more sightings.

Most took place around the Fidlars Ferry boat yard, which is located at the edge of the River Mersey, and near Penketh Mount in Warrington.

Penketh and Cuerdley Police posted on Twitter at around 1pm on Sunday to say they were in the area due to concerns raised over the use of off-road bikes, but their focus quickly changed after people reported seeing the cyclist in the buff.

They tweeted: "Currently dealing with a few reports of a male cycling naked, anyone with any extra info please contact us."

Evans: My maggot in bed shock

RADIO star Chris Evans has revealed he and his wife were horrified to find maggots living in their MATTRESS.

The Virgin Radio presenter, who recently left the BBC, announced on air that he'd made a disgusting discovery in his marital bed.

Evans, 52 (above), told listeners he called pest control, with a swiftly dispatched expert telling him: "I think they're bluebottle maggots."

"Where's the loft hatch, is it over your bed? Think there's something dead in your loft."

And Evans could only assure the pest controller: "They didn't come from me."

The pest controller confirmed they were bluebottle maggots, and that a dead mouse in Evans's family home had attracted the unpleasant visitors, which then found their way down into the bed.

Evans told the tale on his Virgin Radio Breakfast Show, which he joined in January after broadcasting with the BBC since 2005.

WAS THIS PLAYBOY BEAUTY MURDERED BY VIP NONCE GANG?

SILENCED: Natacha Jaitt was found naked and dead

Model 'was set to name names'

A PLAYBOY model who claimed she had evidence of a VIP paedophile ring has been found dead after a house party.

Actress Natacha Jaitt, who also featured in Big Brother, was found dead from an apparent drugs overdose last Saturday morning.

The 41-year-old was found naked in bed with cocaine residue in her nose at a private party house in the province of Buenos, north of Buenos Aires City in Argentina, according to police.

She had been at the party last Friday with a friend and was found dead the next morning.

Local media claimed there were unconfirmed reports the model had taken cocaine and LSD and had drunk champagne.

By JAYNE FERGUSON
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Autopsy results showed the Argentinian actress suffered multiple organ failure – with no signs of violence on her body.

The mother-of-two's death is thought to have been caused by a stroke produced by alcohol and cocaine ingestion.

She had previously said she had been receiving threats and recently said she had been raped.

Cocaine

Ms Jaitt had gone to the house with friend Raul Duarte, 49, for a meeting with the owner of the property rented out for private parties, identified by local media as Guillermo Riconi, 47.

Reports state Ms Jaitt and Duarte were looking to put on events at the property, which also has bedrooms for people to stay the night.

In 2018 the model, who was in series six of Spanish Big Brother in 2004, accused well-known sports stars, entertainers and high-level politicians of being child abusers.

And she warned her Twitter followers that if she died from a cocaine overdose, it would be because of foul play.

Her unexpected death has raised suspicions that she was deliberately targeted.

A pal, who last night begged not to be named for fear of reprisals, said: "Natacha said this is what would happen to her."

"She was about to name names and now she can't."

"This isn't accidental death. This is cold-blooded murder and whoever did it will never be caught."

'KILLER VICAR PAID FOR SEX WITH TRANNY HOOKERS'

A SEX worker has told a court a vicar charged in the slaying of a transgender hooker routinely sought out sex with prostitutes.

Kyra Butts, a transgender woman, testified that pastor Albert Weathers frequented the Palmer Park area of Detroit, Michigan, and paid her and other prostitutes, many who are transgender.

"He was one of the guys that I hooked up with," Butts said during a preliminary hearing for Weathers.

"He would drive around a lot before he would pick someone up."

Butts said she stopped going on "dates" with Weathers as he would give her the "run around" when it came to how much she would be paid for her services.

Aggressive

"His attitude was aggressive and kind of intimidating," Butts testified.

Weathers is accused of killing 36-year-old Kelly Stough, who allegedly was also a sex worker.

Stough's body was found in the Palmer Park area in the early hours of December 7.

She had been shot dead.

Butts said she last saw Weathers in the area a week before Stough's murder, which police allege was the result of a dispute over payment for sex services.

Weathers has been charged with open murder. His bail was set at £800,000.

The 46-year-old's defence attorney David Cripps objected to Watts' testimony, saying it was "designed to smear my client" but he was overruled by Judge Michael Wagner.

Stough, also known as Keanna Mattel, died of a single gunshot wound in her left underarm.

Wayne Co Medical Examiner Dr. David Moons ruled Stough's death a homicide.

A Glock .40 S&W, which was identified as the possible murder weapon, was displayed during the hearing.

The case against

Weathers was assigned by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office to Special Prosecutor Jaimie Powell Horowitz from the Fair Michigan Justice Project – a collaboration between the prosecutor's office and Fair Michigan Foundation Inc.

The foundation helps state law enforcement agencies and prosecutors in solving crimes against victims who identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender.

The case continues.

'Unfit' jail tells lags not to flush

A JAIL has come under fire over claims inmates can only flush their toilet TWICE a day.

Darwin's Holtze prison in Australia has produced a foul stench for some time, says defence lawyer Robert Welfare.

Lags there also face restrictions on their showers, he claimed.

"I've been to prisons all over Australia but this is the only jail I've heard of that limits shower time and only lets you flush twice a day. You can't control when nature calls," he explained.

A recent government review found the £1 billion correctional facility was "not fit for purpose" and subjected prisoners to "humiliating and degrading" lavatory conditions.

Since opening in 2014, the jail has been blasted for overcrowding, as well as having some structural and security issues.

MORE than half of women have fantasised about having sex with an ex-boyfriend while making love with their current partner, according to a new survey.

The encounter women are most likely to revisit in their head is sex with their first love, with 38 per cent saying they have done this.

Less than a quarter of women (24%) feel guilty about these reminiscences – with the majority (76%) seeing it as part of life.

Slightly fewer men have sex with the ex in their heads. Half of men (53%) have fantasised about past sexual encounters while having sex with their partner.

The first love was the most common sexual fantasy, chosen by 23% of men, and only 16% of men felt guilty about their behaviour.

The results come from a new survey of 2,000 people split evenly among men and women by IllicitEncounters.com, the UK's leading website for married people.

Drake voted best on globe for 2nd time

CANADIAN rap star Drake has been named the global recording artist of 2018.

The musician, 32 (above), pipped K-pop sensations BTS and Brit Ed Sheeran to the award handed out by the International Federation of the Phonographic Industry.

He is the only artist to win the title more than once – the first being in 2016.

And it comes after the success of his fifth album Scorpion, which was the first album to hit one billion streams.

The album also reached No.1 in 92 countries while the single God's Plan, released before the album came out, broke first-day streaming records on Spotify and Apple with more than 14 million streams.

BTS came second on the list of top 10 global recording artists of last year, followed by Sheeran, Post Malone, Eminem, Queen, Imagine Dragons, Ariana Grande, Lady Gaga and Bruno Mars.

LOON BROKE IN TO SUCK WOMEN'S TOES

A NUT convicted of sucking on a sleeping woman's toes after breaking into her home claimed to be a GOD sent to Earth to seduce women.

Richard Parkhurst, 29, of Norwalk, California, was convicted of one count of burglary, one count of peering into an inhabited building, and two counts of indecent exposure for a wild chain of events that unfolded after he exposed himself to a woman walking her dog in October 2017.

Later that same day, he sneaked into a sleeping woman's home – where the woman said she woke up and found the creep sucking on her toes.

DNA evidence linked him to this offence, prosecutors said.

The next day, Parkhurst peeped into an apartment through the mail slot and told the resident his girlfriend was attractive.

And while in custody later that day, a female jail guard caught Parkhurst touching himself while looking at her.

Parkhurst's attorney said his client's crimes were part of a "delusion".

"He developed a delusion that he was a Zeus-like god who was sent down from the stars to seduce women," the attorney wrote in court papers.

"It was his destiny to seduce women and they would willingly have his children.

"Mr Parkhurst believes that his progeny will create a super race that will save the planet."

His attorney said Parkhurst stopped taking medication for schizophrenia after his girlfriend died.

He said Parkhurst heard voices coming from his television "telling him to do things".

Parkhurst will be sentenced on April 5.

THE CASE AGAINST R. KELLY

By COLIN HURST

news@sundaysport.co.uk

CHART topper R. Kelly faced a court charged on 10 counts of having illicit sex with underage girls – and then went for a quarter pounder meal at McDonald's.

The I Believe I Can Fly crooner, 52, stuffed himself with fast food moments after being accused of urinating on a 14-year-old girl and having anal sex with her. He was freed from Cook County jail in Chicago when a pal posted bail after he had been charged with 10 counts of aggravated sexual assault.

R. Kelly – real name Robert – stopped off at the same branch of the fast food chain in Chicago's River North neighbourhood, where he allegedly met a high school girl on her prom night back in 1998.

He later got her pregnant and forced her to have an abortion, according to papers filed in a 2002 lawsuit.

The singer settled the claim out of court, when he was 31.

Troubled

The troubled singer has been the subject of repeated allegations of underage sex over the years.

In 1994 it was reported he married 15-year-old singer and musical protégé Aaliyah at a secret ceremony in Chicago when he was 27.

US media said she had lied about her age on the certificate, and the marriage was later annulled.

Aaliyah later died in a plane crash.

Some of the new allegations to emerge about the singer are based on a 45-minute tape – now in the hands of the FBI – which allegedly show R. Kelly and a 14-year-old girl having sex.

The girl calls him "daddy," and he also urinates on her.

Celebrity lawyer Michael Avenatti has said the latest videos are different from the earlier video of R. Kelly urinating on a 13-year-old teen in 2002.

The second tape reportedly shows R. Kelly "coaching" the girl in sexual techniques,

- Married Aaliyah when she was 15
- Videoed sex without permission
- Sex with underage teens
- Urinated on alleged victims
- Anal sex with teenager

R. KELLY

choking her and having anal intercourse.

Kelly's former studio engineer James Lee said in last year's BBC documentary R. Kelly: Sex, Girls and Videotapes claimed the star often picked up girls at McDonald's.

Lee said: "He would occasionally go to this McDonald's and come back to the studio with a girl or two. Going to McDonald's to pick up chicks. That's what a 17-year-old does."

After stopping off for a bite to eat the singer is then said to have gone to a cigar lounge.

Joycelyn Savage and Azriel Clary – two women who currently live with Kelly and whose parents say they are being held against their will and without contact to friends and family – reportedly followed Kelly into the lounge.

The star had spent three days behind bars after handing himself in to cops on Friday.

It was claimed he was struggling to pay the £77,000 bail money after his finances became "a mess" when he was dropped by his record company.

Kelly pleaded not guilty via his lawyer Steve Greenberg to the charges that he sexually abused four women dating back to 1998, including three underage girls aged between 13 and 16 at the time.

On Friday, lawyer Avenatti delivered a press conference about the new sexual abuse charges brought against R. Kelly.

Avenatti – who said he represents alleged survivors, parents of survivors and Kelly "whistleblowers" – claimed that there is a tape depicting Kelly engaging in sex acts with a 14-year-old girl.

He said new witnesses and more video footage indicated the singer "deserves to be locked up for the rest of his life."

He claims to have a second video which he believes shows Kelly sexually abusing an underage girl, said to be 14 at the time.

Illegal

Avenatti said: "The videotape depicts Mr Kelly engaged in illegal sexual assault of a 14-year-old girl."

"It is approximately 55 minutes in length. It leaves no question as to Mr Kelly's guilt on the tape."

He told reporters the tape features Kelly engaging in

Gun granny's stand-off with nude intruder

A GUN-toting granny says it wasn't a big deal when she held a NAKED burglar inside her home.

Gwendolyn Agard, 79 (above), fired two guns at the nude intruder and shouted: "When you come down them stairs, I'm gonna blow your f**king brains out!"

She was in her house in Jackson Co, Atlanta, when she saw a man trying to open her front door.

The man proceeded to get inside the property by using an outside set of stairs to get to a window on the first floor of her house.

Ms Agard's call to the police on February 12, where she can be heard shouting at the burglar and firing shots, was released by the Jackson County Sheriff's Office.

She said although she sounded full of fight on the call, she was frightened that the man also had a gun.

Hans Rogers, 24, has since been charged with burglary, home invasion and criminal trespass.

MANCHESTER United has ordered a couple who make their own "terrible" football stickers to stop selling "wonky drawings" of the team's ex-players.

Alex and Sian Pratchett, known as the Panini Cheapskates, have won a loyal fanbase with their crude imitations of the playground collectables.

But Premier League side Man Utd contacted the pair, from Oxford, over use of its trademarks such as its Red Devil badge.

And the stickers have now been withdrawn from sale.

A Manchester United spokesman said the stickers had infringed the club's "intellectual property rights".

On Twitter, the couple wrote: "Sad times. Man Utd got in touch and made us stop selling our wonky drawings of their ex-players. If you've ordered one, we'll be in touch."

KINGS of CRIME

PART TWO OF OUR SHOCK

He wasn't a gang... he was running an army

VIOLENT KILLER:
Miguel Trevino Morales

ELITE: Ex-Army soldiers preferred to join cartel than fight it – leading to foul slaughter (below)

HORROR stories about what happens to those targeted by Mexican drug gangs are legendary.

They typically involve vicious torture such as dismemberment, face-peeling and acid baths.

One of the more ruthless cartel leaders was the Los Zetas boss Miguel Trevino Morales.

In 2013 Mexican authorities arrested and imprisoned Trevino, also known as Z-40, for crimes that include drug trafficking, torture and the illegal use of firearms.

Truly sadistic toward victims, Trevino murdered hundreds if not thousands of people.

Bodies

He is responsible for bodies hanging from bridges, hours-long torture videos and mass graves of Mexican migrants.

George Grayson, an expert on the Zetas, says that Trevino is one of "the most sadistic" of the cartel leaders who "really gets off on inflicting diabolical pain on people".

Encouraged by corruption in both the Mexican and United States governments that helped perpetuate the deadly drug war, Trevino's terrors knew no bounds...

MIGUEL Trevino Morales was no chef, but that didn't stop him preparing a favourite dish.

His preferred way of killing was called "el guiso" – or "the stew".

The practice involved making his victims stand in a 50-gallon barrel of water or kerosene where he would either burn or boil them alive.

Hearts

In the popular tourist resort of Cancun, his gang the Zetas had the perfect place to dump their victims.

Over a one-month period in 2010, 18 bodies were discovered in a cave nearby.

The victims had been tortured, their hands and feet bound, and several had had their hearts removed.

Three of the victims had Zs carved into their chests, indicating that the crime was carried out by Los Zetas.

By JUSTIN DUNN
news@sundaysport.co.uk

Miguel Trevino Morales, now 48, came from humble beginnings. He started his cartel career with Los Tejas, a drug gang near the border town of Laredo, Texas, running errands and washing cars.

He was eventually promoted and became responsible for running drugs across the border.

The Gulf cartel absorbed Los Tejas when it took over their stretch of border territory, and Trevino rose quickly through the ranks.

Los Zetas began as a private army of the Gulf cartel and included elite members of the Mexican military.

All of the group's members were by code names that began with "Z", and they were responsible for the execution of rivals to maintain the Gulf cartel's supremacy.

In the Zetas' fight for control of human trafficking networks, they carried out mass kidnappings of migrants from buses travelling through San Fernando.

They viciously murdered those who refused to be drug mules for the cartel.

It was later discovered that local authorities acted as lookouts and assisted in capturing travellers.

Beating

In 49 anonymous mass graves, 198 bodies were found – and 47 more human torsos were found in a neighbouring state.

Unconfirmed stories about Los Zetas forcing kidnapped men to fight each other to the death and of Trevino brutally beating men with sledgehammers have circulated online.

Former law enforcement officer in the south-western United States, Alejandro Marentes, believes that the stories are likely to be true. The Zetas waged war against a wide range of groups including their former employers, the Gulf cartel, Mexico's government, police, journalists and everyday people.

They were able to target so many groups by obtaining assault rifles like AR-15s and high calibre machine guns with the help of smugglers who brought the weapons back from the Gulf War.

Miguel's brother Jose Trevino Morales, an American citizen, was a bricklayer in Oklahoma while his brother was climbing the ranks of Los Zetas.

Miguel had to find a way to make his cartel money legitimate, so he laundered it with the help of his brother.

They bought 400 horses and set up breeding and training facilities to clean nearly $16 million.

He even named his horses Number One Cartel, The Hitman and Mr Ease Cartel to taunt authorities.

In order to combat the rise of drug lords, the Mexican government turned to the military for help.

But the move backfired and many members of the Zetas rose from this convoluted battlefield where special forces fighters deserted after deciding their interests were better served fighting the government than fighting rich drug lords.

Forces

Their insider knowledge of Mexican military tactics enabled them to better elude and anticipate Mexico's armed forces.

A former Trevino associate, Rosalio Reta, was interviewed from jail in 2011 about his former boss.

Reta said: "He wasn't running any old criminal gang. He was running an army." He said that if Trevino "couldn't sleep, he had to kill something" and that he'd rather kill a cow or a horse than a "bullshit" deer.

Another former jailed Zetas associate, Wenceslao Tovar, claims that when he first met Trevino, he was in the process of executing three people.

New recruits who had never killed before were given a machete or a sledgehammer and told to murder the victims, who were bound.

In 2012, police found 18 bodies so badly mutilated that they could not even determine if the victims were male or female.

The bodies had been decapitated, dismembered and placed into vehicles left on the side of the road in a small town near Guadalajara. The bodies appeared to have been refrigerated after death.

Undisclosed messages threatening other gangs attempting to control the area were found inside the vehicles.

In 2011, the Zetas arrived at the Monterrey Casino in Nuevo Leon in three separate vehicles.

Burst

They were carrying gallons of petrol, and a few seconds after the cartel burst into the casino people began to flee as the gangsters set fire to the place.

A few patrons escaped out of a back window, but many fled to the bathrooms to hide, where they asphyxiated and died.

All the men were armed, but there was no gunfire. The attack lasted just two minutes but claimed 52 lives. Miguel Trevino Morales's rise to the top of the Zetas cartel wasn't as simple as going in for a job interview.

The Zetas experienced a rift when Trevino disagreed with Zeta leader Heriberto Lazcano, and the group split into two warring factions.

Eventually, Lazcano was killed by the Mexican Navy. His death paved the way for Trevino to rule the gang unopposed.

In the Cadereyta Jiménez Massacre of 2012, 49 headless and handless bodies were found near Mexican Federal Highway 40 that stretches from Monterrey to the South Texas border, although the actual death toll could be over 68 people.

Some were stuffed into rubbish bags while others were strewn along the side of the highway.

Authorities say that the victims were killed elsewhere up to two days before and dumped in the early hours of the morning.

A message was left with the bodies that threatened members of the Gulf and Sinaloa cartels as well as government and military forces. It was signed by Trevino and by his eventual rival Heriberto Lazcano.

On top of running drugs, the organized crime group also smuggled people into the U.S., ran prostitution rings and even stole oil.

Arrests

Trafficking drugs was a family business. After Miguel Trevino Morales was taken into custody by authorities in 2013, his brother Omar took over Los Zetas.

Known as Z-42, Omar didn't last long on the job – after just a year he was also arrested.

But despite the arrests and loss of key members, the Zetas are still a fearsome gang, and the drugs war seems to have no end in sight.

A KIM Jong-un impersonator says he is being deported from Vietnam as the real North Korean leader arrives in the country for a summit with Donald Trump.

The lookalike, an Australian who lives in Hong Kong and goes by the name Howard X, had been holding mock meetings with a doppelganger of the US President around the Vietnamese capital before allegedly being "interrogated" and kicked out of Vietnam.

"The official reason is because my visa was invalid, however my real crime was looking like the president of North Korea," wrote Howard X in a Facebook post.

Howard X and Trump impersonator Russell White were filming for local TV, he said, before "15 police or immigration officers" arrived to speak with the pair.

He went on to slam the authorities for making the country "look backwards and stupid" for shutting down satire.

"There is a police officer stationed right outside my hotel to track our movements. Come on really? Are we living in 2019 or 1984?" he added.

White has reportedly been allowed to stay in the country on condition that he does not appear in public in costume.

A COP was disciplined after allegedly allowing two suspects to engage in sexual activity in his patrol car.

Zachery Moellendick, 23, and Krista Leigh, 24, were arrested for allegedly shoplifting at a Walmart in July 2018.

An internal affairs report claims the couple had stolen jewellery and a baby toy from the store in Fort Pierce, Florida.

Officer Doug McNeal arrested them and put them in the back of his patrol vehicle.

Kissing

The Fort Pierce Police Department alleges that Officer McNeal violated policy by failing to properly search or restrain the couple before the trip to the station even started.

But once the ride did get under way, the departmental violations

By GRACE HOOPER
news@sundaysport.co.uk

increased, according to the report.

Video appears to show the couple kissing and cuddling on the way to St Lucie County Jail.

At some point, Officer McNeal apparently decides to help the atmosphere a bit by playing Barry White's mood-setting classic love song Can't Get Enough Of Your Love.

Then, according to the report, Officer McNeal started finishing up his paperwork while the couple started working on something else.

"Due to Leigh and Moellendick's body posture and arm movements, it is apparent Moellendick and Leigh are sexually pleasuring each other with their hands," the report reads.

"This continues for approximately six minutes."

Disciplinary action was taken and Officer McNeal was suspended for 20 days without pay.

Driver refused to let p*ssing woman off bus

A WOMAN filmed weeing on a packed bus may go unpunished – if no-one makes a complaint.

Video has emerged of a concertgoer pulling down her jeans, squatting in the doorway and peeing on a public bus rammed full of passengers.

Afterwards, she was seen standing in a pool of urine and exposing herself to other members of the public while trying to pull up her pants.

In footage posted to social media, the woman can be heard saying: "I had to go to the toilet," before telling passengers, "Sorry everyone".

But while the woman faces a potential £200 fine, she could walk free if no-one formally complains about the incident in Auckland, New Zealand.

If a complaint was lodged, the woman may be able to defend herself if she can prove she had reasonable grounds for believing she would not be observed, according to legislation.

One eyewitness said: "She asked the driver several times if they would let her out but they said no. To everyone saying 'she should have pushed the button and got off', she tried."

POLICE were stunned when a female called to report her drug dealer had sold her brown sugar and not cocaine.

Local cops posted on Facebook: "A dishonest dealer? What's the world coming to?"

Married TV anchor's overdose during 'encounter with a male companion'

'ROCK' IN RECTUM: Burrous worked for KTLA (above)

Rat's a lovely bit of teat, Emily!

DISHY Emily Ratajkowski looked very PERKY as she got into a cab in New York after celebrating her first wedding anniversary in style.

Apparently not wearing a bra, the stunning model's stiff nip and outer bull were on display through her flimsy green top.

Emily had earlier celebrated her first year of being wed to husband Sebastian Bear-McClard – by posting a naked selfie on Instagram.

Posting the topless selfie – along with the simple caption "one year" – Emily showed off her fancy jewellery while completely naked.

A fan said: "When I see her, wee-wee comes out of my winkle."

A TOP newsreader dropped dead with a lump of killer death drug crystal meth up his arse in the middle of a drug-fuelled bumming spree.

Police were called to a Days Inn hotel in Los Angeles around 1.15pm on December 27 to find KTLA news anchor Christopher Burrous unresponsive and suffering from a "medical emergency".

An autopsy report, which has just been released, said he died of a crystal meth overdose "during a sexual encounter with a male companion".

Police say a male who had been with Burrous at the time placed the call.

Burrous was taken to a hospital, where he was pronounced dead.

Poppers

The Los Angeles County coroner released a report ruling his death an accident by means of meth toxicity.

It also elaborated on the circumstances of his death.

According to the report, Burrous was engaging in "various sexual activities with his companion" when he inserted a "rock" of meth into his rectum.

He inserted a second rock later on in the encounter, put on a mask and "doused the filters with 'poppers'".

"Poppers" refer to an inhalant of amyl nitrate.

Burrous began to grunt and vomit before becoming unresponsive.

The male individual, who has not been identified, performed CPR on Burrous before the paramedics arrived, the report stated.

The coroner's office noted that hypertension and atherosclerotic cardiovascular disease may have contributed to Burrous' death.

Burrous had worked for KTLA since 2011 and previously worked at WPIX in New York.

He is survived by his wife and a daughter, nine.

THE WORLD FAMOUS AGONY Page

Dear Sam,

I'M 22 and have just returned from a year's break in Japan where I was teaching English to students.

For the first six months I was based in Tokyo and got stuck into the nightlife, which is incredible.

I hooked up with another ex-pat and he introduced me to the sex clubs, which were outrageous.

Our regular port of call was called Sex Kittens and inside it was wall-to-wall with cute Japanese girls dressed in college girl uniforms.

For a £10 entrance fee you could feel their tits and arse. For another £10 the girls would give you a blowjob in the club and for £25 you were led to a cubicle for a private dance and a shag.

Every so often the club organised a private party and they were really wild. The entrance fee to these events was £50 but you really got your money's worth.

First off there were about 25 girls wrestling each other nude in a giant paddling pool of noodles with sauce.

Any bloke who was brave enough to get in there was rewarded with blowjobs and, if he could keep hold of them for long enough, a shag.

After that there was a game show-type stage event where the five girls stuck their arse through curtains and blokes took it in turns porking them up the arse.

Then it was a free-for-all with shagging going on in every corner of the club.

I had a great time, but since returning to England I've not managed to find anything that compares.

I looked on the internet but all the websites I visited were rubbish.

Please help!

GET yourself a job in Tokyo.

Dear Sam,

I WAS clearing out the boxroom at our house the other day when I came across some holiday snaps taken 50 years ago.

One showed my wife-to-be coming out of the sea in a tiny red bikini looking absolutely ravishing.

I showed them to the missus before we went to bed and her reaction was sensational. We had the greatest sex since that time on our hols.

How about that?

I've got two women to satisfy my sexual needs

Dear Sam,

I AM a 45-year-old man and have been with my girlfriend for 15 years. I recently started going to the gym to get in shape and got myself a female personal trainer.

I have a good sex life with my girlfriend and she really satisfies me in the bedroom.

I get on well with my trainer and after my workout last week she suggested we have a quick sauna.

Well, she ended up giving me a blowjob. Since then I can't get her out of my head.

When I have a workout with her, we are now really touchy-feely.

I am still having sex with my girlfriend and still enjoy that as well.

What the hell should I do?

RS, email

Sam says...

THANK your lucky stars and carry on enjoying yourself.

Shy office babe had no inhibitions in bedroom

Dear Sam,

A NEW girl has just started at the office where I work.

She's quite shy but has lovely curly red hair and great tits.

I thought I'd try to bring her out of her shell a bit, so I invited her out for a drink after work.

We got on well and I was thrilled when she later agreed to come back to my place.

She soon lost her shyness and was onto me, thrusting her hot tongue in my mouth.

I immediately went for her giant tits and her nipples were like cherry stones as I tweaked them and sucked them.

After a while she grabbed my head and pushed it down between her long legs as she pulled her skirt up to reveal the moist triangle in her panties.

Squealing

I eased them aside and took a deep breath of her musty scent and probed her ginger lips with my tongue.

Within minutes she was squealing in the throes of passion, which ended in a crescendo of orgasm.

She was quite wobbly on her legs after that, so she sank to her knees and took my rock-hard cock between her lips. Her oral was out of this world!

She tore off my clothes and spread her thighs wide so I could slide easily deep into her soppy fanny.

After a few minutes of humping, she flipped me over and eased herself down on my throbbing tool.

She expertly rode me, making me explode in ecstasy.

The only drawback is that now

I think I've fallen in love with her. But she's told me that she can't see me any more because she's getting married soon.

What can I do about it?

AP, Kent

Sam says...

CALM down and get real. You've only seen her once, you great big baby.

Dear Sam,

I HAD to e-mail you to tell you about Sunday – my best day of the week.

I'm married to a wonderful woman who has 38DD breasts. It really turns her on when I fondle and lick her erect nipples and this gets me going too.

She also likes to give me a tit-rub until I climax.

We normally start our games at around 8.30am. First she straddles me and then bends over so that her pendulous mammaries are dangling just above my face.

After a while she guides my rigid rod into her and bounces up and down on it while I reach up and tweak her nipples until they are as stiff as my manhood.

It's only a matter of seconds before she screams out in ecstasy as she reaches her first orgasm.

Eventually I climax too, then I take one of her nipples in my mouth.

I kiss, lick and suck it for ages until she's begging me to enter her – which I do with one almighty thrust.

I ride her like a stallion, kissing each breast in turn as I pump away at her.

But the other day she suddenly announced that she was thinking of having her breasts reduced.

What should I do?

PJ, email

Sam says...

ALL you can do is point out how important they are to you.

Dear Sam,

THERE's a bird in my local pub who everyone fancies. She's a 21-year-old brunette with huge tits.

And she gives blowjobs to anyone who beats her at pool.

The other week, she gave me some photos and said: "They're for your eyes only and wait until you get home to look at them."

I rushed home and couldn't believe my eyes when I saw the snaps.

They were pics of her showing everything.

The next time I saw her she asked if I'd enjoyed the pics. When I said yes, she invited herself to my place.

I suggested we make a porn vid she was all for it.

She started flicking her bean while I filmed her, then she sucked me off.

She gave me a fantastic tit-wank and I exploded all over her face.

She then produced some handcuffs from her bag, tied me to the bed and emptied the contents of my fridge on to me – they were all licked off my knob.

This did nothing for me as I thought it was a terrible waste of food, but she seemed to enjoy it.

We see each other twice a week, but it's costing me a fortune in food.

Should I tell her to cut out the food sex?

VT, Somerset

Sam says...

YOU could but she might tell you to cut out the sex!

Jeweller hunk is a gem of a lover

Dear Sam,

I WENT to a jeweller's with my boyfriend a couple of months ago. He was buying me an engagement ring – but I ended up ditching him for the hunky guy behind the counter.

As soon as I walked in and saw him, my heart skipped a beat. I chose a ring and, as we left, the jeweller pressed a card in my hand.

I rang him later and we arranged to meet that night as my fella was working until midnight.

At the end of the evening he invited me back to his place. I eagerly accepted and when we got inside he grabbed me and gave me a passionate kiss.

I could feel myself getting moist as he slid his hand up my top, resting on my breast.

I felt as if I was about to burst. I undid his trousers and grabbed his manhood, letting it swell in my hand.

Thrusts

He led me to the sofa and I leaned over and took the tip of his cock between my lips.

He was moaning with every lick and slurp and then said he was about to come. So I clambered on to his lap and guided him inside my aching pussy.

A few thrusts later we both came. I stayed for two hours and we made love in loads of positions.

That was the beginning of our affair. Three weeks later I told my boyfriend it was all over between us and my jeweller lover and I now live together.

But my family won't have anything to do with us and it's breaking my heart.

After all, I can't help falling in love. Any advice?

AK, North Yorks

NICOLA ULIAN

GORGEOUS Nicola Ulian became a model at the age of 20 after winning a contest.

The daughter of a top consultant psychiatrist, she grew up in a wealthy part of Manchester, attended a private day school and left at 16 with an ambition to become a florist.

And she has graduated from topless modelling to television commercials.

But her lucrative sideline – before it was shut down by Brussels-inspired “human rights” laws introduced by the discredited Tony Blair regime – was flogging kiss ‘n’ tell stories to tabloids.

And her speciality was snaring footballers.

Famous

She said in 2003: “Footie players are just like any other lads. They want sex.

“There are lots of girls who make a beeline for them. They are not models or anything – they do ordinary jobs. But for one night, they really are someone.

“They are surrounded by famous people who are spending more money on drinks than they’ve seen.

“You can’t be surprised if they don’t say no when things get heavy.

“Some deliberately want to kiss ‘n’ tell. It’s well known that some girls target footballers so they can get money from a tabloid for saying they had a fling with them.

“About £8,000 is the going rate. That’s the way the system works.

“The girls I know who’ve gone off with footballers have never had a bad experience. Mostly, they say they’re great at sex and have fantastic stamina.”

'It feels naughty to dress like a slut and behave like a whore'

I LOVE the idea of being a call girl – a high class one of course, darling!

Obviously, I don't want to sell my body but I do like to role play. It feels so naughty getting dressed up super sexy and then behaving like a whore.

"Think Julia Roberts in the film

Pretty Woman, she looked so hot in her thigh-high PVC boots.

I love to get dressed up to the nines and wear a really short, slutty mini skirt – and of course suspenders and stockings.

A wig always adds to the look too!

Role play gives you the chance to act out a naughty side to you.

I love meeting my boyfriend in a hotel bar and pretending that he's a client. I get a real kick out of people looking at us, at my slutty outfit, and wondering if I'm a prostitute.

Then we go to the hotel room and of course I insist he hands me over my money first.

Then I'm pure filth, as it's all about sex.

And he must get his money's worth!

SPURS CAN ADD TO BLUE WOE

SPURS' defeat at Turf Moor on Saturday all but ended their title challenge (66/1 with BetVictor) but they visit Stamford Bridge this evening in what promises to be an entertaining but prickly London derby.

Spurs have won three of their last four PL games against Chelsea, but they have a poor record at the Bridge winning just one of their last 32 visits to the home of the Blues.

Both sides must lift themselves after a disappointing weekend of course. Chelsea's excellent performance at Wembley in the League Cup Final was, arguably, overshadowed by the "miscommunication" involving goalkeeper Kepa and the Chelsea bench deep into injury time with the tie heading to penalties.

The Blues are 13/10 to win and Evens with BetVictor to end the season in the top four despite trailing Arsenal (H Bournemouth) by three points and United (A Palace) by two ahead of this evening's PL games.

Spurs are 23/10 to take the points with the draw at 5/2. Spurs have, incredibly, not drawn a league game in their last 27 but I feel they will share the spoils this evening. A 1-1 draw is 6/1 at BetVictor and that is the recommendation.

Man United travel to Selhurst Park this evening having won their last seven away in all competitions and I felt their injury-ravaged side had the better chances against a subdued Liverpool at Old Trafford on Sunday.

Solskjaer is 1/3 to be the manager of Manchester United on the opening day of the 2019/20 season.

Poor

It feels almost inconceivable that the job will be given to someone other than the Norwegian who coped superbly with the loss of three players in the opening 45 minutes at Old Trafford against Liverpool.

Liverpool entertain Watford this evening on the back of successive goalless draws. The Reds have not been at their best in those games, but I'm not convinced they were poor results although it is fair to say that injury-ravaged United were there for the taking. Liverpool are the second best side in the division – but that doesn't mean they won't win the Premier League.

The Hornets have a desperate record at Anfield losing their last 10 PL games and Javi Gracia's side have lost their last 11 league games on the road against the "big six" and Liverpool to lead at halftime/fulltime is the recommendation at 37/40 with BetVictor.

Jürgen Klopp needs his talisman back on top form and Mo Salah is 14/5 to open the scoring and 3/4 at BetVictor to find the back of the Hornets net at some stage during the 90 minutes.

Man City must do without defender Aymeric Laporte and midfield general Fernandinho for the visit of West Ham. If the pair, arguably the side's best defenders, are out for more than a couple of weeks it will go a long way to deciding the destiny of the title. City are 1/2 for the title at BetVictor with Liverpool at 6/4 – Liverpool have a one-point lead and have the easier run-in.

Kids are alright for Ole to beat injuries

SOLSKJAER LOOKS AT YOUTH TO FILL GAPS

OLE Gunnar Solskjaer will look to his young players as he faces a massive injury crisis.

The Manchester United boss has an entire team on the sidelines ahead of tonight's trip to Crystal Palace.

And they are top players too with Nemanja Matic, Anthony Martial, Juan Mata, Jesse Lingard and Marcus Rashford on the easy list.

It means the Norwegian will have no choice but to look to his under-23 squad to put out a full team at Selhurst Park.

Solskjaer is trying to stay positive and believes the young players are being a chance to prove they are good enough for first-team football.

By PAUL THOMAS

He said: "We'll have a good team out on the pitch definitely. There'll be a chance for others."

"I've been sat on the outside getting a chance when this had happened."

"The players who came in against Liverpool like Scott McTominay and Andreas Pereira, I thought they did fantastic."

"There you go, that's the way it is. You've just got to be ready when you get it."

United have been trying to get Martial back from his niggling problem but tonight has come too soon.

Solskjaer added: "Martial is not going to be ready for this one."

"We can't risk it. So, maybe Southampton, but we're not going to risk another one too early."

Rehab

Solskjaer has come in for some stick after putting Lingard on against Liverpool before he was fully fit.

The boss said: "In hindsight, maybe we can say Jesse was eager, he ticked all the boxes in training had done the recovery work and the rehab but maybe it was a couple of days too early. But, then again, it was Liverpool and he was desperate to be a part of it."

Solskjaer says he has faith in his younger players.

He added: "They've been part of our training for a long time now."

"I'm sure Angel Gomes, he's been successful with England Under-17s."

"So, he has been a big part of that and, Angel, I am definitely sure that if he gets the chance, he'll do well."

"Jimmy Garner is a Michael Carrick but 20 years younger, so I'm sure he'll do well."

"And Tahith Chong he'll definitely be taking people on if he comes on. But they're ready, they're kids."

BRENDAN FOX OFF TO LEICESTER

BRENDAN Rodgers has turned his back on Celtic after Leicester came calling — and Rangers boss Steven Gerrard doesn't blame him.

The former Liverpool manager will be in the Foxes' dugout for their weekend game against Watford. They have wasted no time in replacing Claude Puel who was sacked after the weekend walloping at the hands of Crystal Palace.

Gerrard has been across Glasgow at Ibrox since the summer and understands where his old Anfield gaffer is coming from.

He said: "I've just been made aware that he's in talks with Leicester. For us, we just see how that pans out really.

"It seems the Premier League is a big factor otherwise he'd have declined the opportunity to talk to Leicester.

"My focus right now is Rangers and we've got a big fixture against Dundee. That's my main concern right now but we'll keep an eye on how it pans out across the road.

"I'm not really surprised by the timing because these things happen.

"Brendan has done ever so well

By JOHN ANTHONY

at Celtic over the years so it's no surprise that other clubs are watching him and wanting to acquire his services.

"He's done a really good job and I've worked with Brendan so I know he's a very good coach."

Celtic legend Chris Sutton is fuming at the timing of the move and believes Rodgers should have waited until the summer.

He believes that Neil Lennon will be coming back to Celtic Park.

Sutton roared: "The timing of it stinks. He's going to a club who are playing for absolutely nothing — they are not going to get relegated, they are not going to get into Europe—and I am really disappointed.

"I think there are a lot of Celtic fans out there as well who will feel let down. This is the job which Brendan said was his dream job. So why is he going now to a club who have nothing to play for?"

Overhaul

"It looks like Neil Lennon will get the opportunity and I wish him well.

"In terms of how Brendan has left, he has left the club in a tough situation — short-term loans, losing the centre-back pairing and the right-back (Mikael Lustig) in the summer.

"There's a big overhaul in the summer which needs doing."

Celtic "reluctantly" allowed Rodgers to talk to Leicester.

A club statement said: "Celtic Football Club today confirmed that it has been approached by Leicester City FC to speak to Brendan Rodgers with regards to their current managerial vacancy.

"Brendan has indicated to the club that this is an opportunity he wishes to investigate further and therefore, very reluctantly, the club has granted him permission to speak to Leicester City."

Royal can reign off handy weight

WINNING POST WITH BEN MORGAN

GIVEN such a high flat rating I am surprised to see ROYAL RESERVE (NAP) has a jumps rating of 118 over jumps with a win already to his name.

Lucinda Russell has inherited this classy flat performer from Michael Bell and if she can teach him to race in his new discipline then he has the potential to be a major blot on the handicap.

He always liked to be played late on the level as his turn of foot was his main asset, so a track like Musselburgh should suit him really well. Blair Campbell takes off a handy 3lb and I expect him to go very well.

Almost at the opposite end of the British Isles to Musselburgh, is Wincanton and they too host a good card today.

DENTLEY DE MEE has disappointed me this season as he really should have won a race over fences by this time of the season. A very capable hurdler in his day always saves his best for the big races but tends to find one or two too good.

Better

When lowered in grade, he never seems to turn up and is frustrating to follow. Hopefully a small break will have flicked a switch because he is handicapped to win a race of this nature.

I will be interested to see how THREE WEEKS gets on at Southwell today as his second to Matterhorn earlier in the season reads very well.

Mark Johnston's horse has gone on to much better things and Three Weeks has also notched a victory. He was tried over further, but didn't quite see it out so connections drop back to the extended 7f today and I expect him to run very well.

HARBOUR QUAY is another horse who I can see going well returning to Southwell. Injury has held him up in his career to date so far but he has posted much better efforts in recent outings especially when finishing second last time out over course and distance.

He is perhaps in a bit deeper again today but it's worth remembering he is learning all the time and he could shock a few.

CITY TAKE A HAMMERING

MANCHESTER City have key men on the sidelines for their clash with West Ham.

Pep Guardiola's men were already without John Stones and Gabriel Jesus.

They have been joined in the treatment room by Fernandinho and Aymeric Laporte who limped out of the Carabao Cup final with a knock.

That's a big worry for the defending champions as the wheels fell off the last time the combative Brazilian midfielder was on the sidelines.

And another blow came with the news that Aymeric Laporte faces a spell in the treatment room too.

By ANDY MILLOM

Guardiola said: "John Stones and Gabriel Jesus are still out. Now Fernandinho and Aymeric Laporte are too. I don't know exactly how long for. The next weeks they will be out."

The Spaniard has some more positive news about another important player who can face the Hammers.

He added: "Benjamin Mendy is better and has been training in the last three or four days. The reaction from the knee has been good. He could be fit. We will see."

Despite the injury issues, Guardiola is happy to see his players on a high after winning the Carabao Cup on penalties against Chelsea.

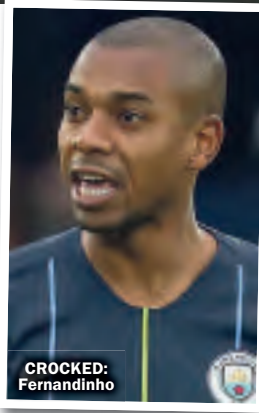

He hopes that positive attitude will see them through the final games of the season to retain their title and deny Liverpool their first crown in a generation.

Pep said: "Of course it is better always in training, to have won a second title of the season and the weather is better, but the reality is we don't have a lot of time to think about what happened. Against West Ham we have another test."

Guardiola is happy that the gap to Liverpool at the top of the table is down to one point after being on the verge of going into double figures entering February.

He said: "The lead of Liverpool is shorter than I expected but they are still leading by one point and there are a lot of games to play."
